Stutz Artists Deck the Walls with Fine Art During Dec. 2 Holiday Open House

INDIANAPOLIS – The Stutz Artists Association’s most festive art showcase will take place Friday, December 2, 5-10 p.m. The Stutz Holiday Open House provides guests and art lovers the opportunity to view and buy exceptional art– including smaller works, great for unique and heartfelt gift giving. As part of this year’s IDADA First Friday event, more than 40 artists will open their studios to visitors, giving them not only an opportunity to see where and how the work is created, but also the opportunity to purchase the art. Artwork ranges from paintings, drawings and photography, to sculpture, jewelry and furniture.

Opening on December 2, the Raymond James Stutz Art Gallery will “deck the walls” with featured artwork from many of the 90+ Stutz artists that captures the spirit of the holidays. The IDADA First Friday event will also feature festive holiday food, beverages and music. This holiday exhibition will remain open during the month of December.
